your PR.i.VATES

Student Quiz

For information visit www.yourprivates.org.uk

Which is the most likely age to develop Testicular cancer?

A. 10-14 B. 15-45 C. 50-60

Is testicular cancer becoming more or less common?

A. more B. less

What is the most common symptom of TC?

A. headache B. a hard lump in the balls C. an ache in the balls

Are you at more risk of developing testicular cancer if;

A. your brother has had it B. your father has had it C. neither

How often should you check your balls

A. once a day B. Once a year C. Every 6-months D. once a month

When is the best time to check you balls?

A. after a warm/hot bath B. after an ice cold shower

What percentage of men will survive early TC

A. 10% B. 50% C. 75% D. 98%

What hormone is made by the testicles?

A. testosterone B. oestrogen C. glucose

What is the most common cause of TC

A. kick in the balls B. an undescended testicle

How many men in the UK are diagnosed with TC every year

A. 10000 B. 5200 C. 2400

Only answer if supplementary slides viewed.

What is an operation to remove the testicle called

A. nutoptomy B. ballplasty C. orchidectomy

Orchid Male Cancer Information Nurse
T. 0203 465 6105 E. nurse@orchid-cancer.org.uk